

Commitment: I'd rather be a failure at something I love than a success at something I hate.
—George Burns, American comedian, 1896-1996

Org Day 2000 photographs continued from page 6

Civil engineers have to start someplace and there aren't many beaches nicer than Bellows where you can learn the basics without interference.

Eating and socializing are what picnics are all about and Bellows provides the ideal setting for both.

(Above) Information Management folks. (Below) Part of the team from Logistics takes a break.

Joint promotion party shares joy with Division and District

(Above) Logistics building 223 proves a good site for the party. (Below left) Alumni such as recently retired Joe Swift came to share in the fun. (Below right) The flower lei POD's Karen Tomoyasu is wearing attests to her status.

While the last time someone was promoted to a new job in POD or HED isn't that long ago, it really has been a while since the event was celebrated.

On May 25th, that situation was remedied as 25 employees whose jobs changed within the past year pitched in and threw a "pau hana" party for everyone else to enjoy their good fortune.

(Below left) David Lau and Helen Stupplebeen call out the names of door-prize winners. (Below right) Winner Duane Inoue is not going home empty-handed. (Bottom) The lawn is an ideal spot for a picnic. Photos by Duane Inoue

